

Name: _____

1. Jamie is at the store trying to decide which item to buy. In one hand she is holding her favorite video game. In the other hand, she is holding a new writing journal that she really needs for school. Jamie only has enough money to buy one or the other. Which item should Jamie buy? Please explain why you chose the item you did.

1. Please make a list of need and a list of wants. You will need to list at least three of each.

Needs:

Wants:

2. When is it okay to buy something you want, but don't need?

3. Please draw us a picture of a time when you had to make a choice between two items. When finished, add a caption so we know what's happening in your picture.